

Canyon Crest Academy Associated Student Body

2019-2020 Application

Elected Positions

POSITION DESCRIPTIONS

Class Officers: The class Presidents and Vice Presidents act as a bridge between ASB and their respective high school classes. Working together, they run regularly scheduled Student Senate meetings to discuss, with the senators of their grade, class events such as bondings and fundraisers. Class officers are responsible for raising the funds required in order to support a successful senior week. Class officers are role models for their grades; having a positive spirited manner can drastically change the whole behavior of the entire class. The senior class officers are also members of senior committee in ASB, and spend an extensive amount of time planning senior week events.

Commissioner of Clubs: The Commissioner of Clubs is the liaison between ASB and the many clubs on campus. His or her primary responsibilities include organizing club applications, hosting ASB events such as Club Day, being familiar with the procedures clubs must follow, and answering the many questions clubs have every day. The Commissioner of Clubs is ideal for someone who is an effective communicator and has a passion for supporting the clubs and their various interests.

Commissioner of Sports: The Commissioner of Sports is the leader of the Raven Nation. This position is about amplifying the energy devoted toward supporting CCA sports. Being Commissioner of Sports involves extensive communication and publicity (often via social media), interacting with CCA coaches, and staying informed about the many sports events CCA teams participate in.

POSITION PREREQUISITES AND CONDITIONS

- Senior class president only: enrollment in at least one prior term of ASB at CCA
- Class officers must be from their respective grade level
- If elected, enrollment in ASB for both terms of the 2019-2020 school year is required
- ASB members must have and maintain a 2.5 GPA or higher
- No history of discipline policy violations
- No more than 3 students may run for an elected position. In the event that this occurs, interviews will be conducted with the ASB Adviser and the CCA Administration.

Turn in completed packet to Mr. Kortman in a sealed envelope with your name on it.

Do not give it to another ASB student or leave it in the ASB room.

Deadline: Friday, March 22nd at 3:30pm

ASB RESPONSIBILITIES

Personal Responsibilities

By enrolling in ASB, you must be willing and able to devote time and energy toward ASB events on and off campus. You should be open to learning leadership skills and want to become an effective member of your committee. Committee work in ASB focuses on achieving both short term and long term goals through events and other committee activities. In achieving these goals, you will become a more effective leader, planner, communicator, and organizer. You are expected to be an impactful member of your committee; this requires working well in groups and being autonomous, as needed. You will get more out of your experience in ASB if you apply yourself and put more effort into your work. Enthusiasm and spirit are key to having a satisfying and successful semester in ASB.

Leadership Responsibilities

- Plan, execute, and attend numerous events and student activities
- Be spirited and participate in CCA ASB activities and events, including dress up days
- Be a leader both in and out of the ASB classroom by being responsible and respectful toward students, staff, parents, and vendors
- Actively participate in weekly CCA ASB student council meetings
- Complete event paperwork, required for planning ASB events, in a timely fashion
- Commit between 25 and 30 hours outside of class time per quarter
- Use proper accounting practices when working in Student Store and Concessions
- Learn how to set up, run and take down the music system and other equipment
- Seek to understand and master all processes and procedures of ASB

Associated Student Body Contract

I understand the responsibilities and expectations of being an ASB member as described above. I have discussed the ASB contract with my parent/guardian and I am willing to dedicate my time, passion and skills toward being a valuable participant in the ASB class. I acknowledge that, if I violate any portion of the school discipline policy, I may be removed from my position and the class, and may also be barred from running for any future ASB positions or reacceptance into the ASB program.
